

Resources for Californians impacted by Los Angeles Fires

Essential resources and information you can access immediately.

How can I get help?

- Individual assistance available through FEMA:

- Three ways to register for FEMA Assistance:

Online at DisasterAssistance.gov. Applying online is the easiest, fastest, and most convenient way to apply

On the FEMA App for mobile devices.

Call the FEMA helpline at 1-800-621-3362: 4 a.m. to 10 p.m. (PST). Help is available in most languages.

Watch an accessible video about how to apply here.

- Assistance for small businesses available through the federal Small Business Administration \(SBA\)
 - Visit Disaster Recovery Centers for help with federal aid applications, housing and rental support, and access to services. Stay tuned for additional information and for specific locations.
-

What is individual assistance?

Individual assistance consists of multiple federal programs to help disaster survivors start to recover. These programs include, but are not limited to:

- Advanced Financial Assistance
 - Housing and Rental Assistance
 - Funds for Repair / Replacement of Damaged Homes
 - Disaster Legal Services
 - Disaster Unemployment Assistance
 - Other Needs Assistance
-

How do I file an insurance claim?

Visit Resources to Help Recent Wildfire Victims (California Department of Insurance) for multi-lingual tips on preparing for an insurance claim. Another helpful resource is Top Ten Tips for Wildfire Claimants.